This is another in a series of capsules previewing area high school basketball for the 2009-10 season:

WAYNE

Coach: Travis Trice, 3rd season

2008-09 record: 18-6 (8-2 Greater Western Ohio Conference)

Returning starters

Travis Trice, Jr. G, 6-0

Markus Crider, Jr. F, 6-6

Notable

Trice and Crider combined to score 25 points and grab 8.8 rebounds per game last season, and they're joined by some newcomers to the Wayne program. Those include Isaiah Boddie, a 6-2 junior from Trotwood, Xavier Jones, a 6-3 senior from Gary, Ind., and Aaron Montgomery, a 6-5 senior from Northmont. The Warriors will also get help from sophomore Keith Clements, who started several games for the team last season and Trice calls "a very tough-nosed kid." All will follow the lead of Trice Jr., who was the only sophomore named All-GWOC last season (there were only two juniors: A.J. Pacher of Vandalia Butler and Blake Davenport of Lebanon). "We've added some big teams to our schedule, so our guard play will have to be strong," Trice Sr. said.
