Wayne's Travis Trice iced a 72-69 victory over host Lebanon by connecting on two free throws with seconds to play in a boys basketball game Tuesday, Dec. 8.

The Warriors, who trailed by 13 points in the third quarter, scored 48 points in the second half to complete the rally. Trice led the charge with 33 points.

A.J. Walter scored 16 points for Lebanon, who hit a dozen 3-point baskets.

This was Wayne's season opener; Lebanon falls to 0-2.
