

DDN boys basketball poll for Jan. 29

Updated 2:15 AM Friday, January 29, 2010

Division I

- 1. Wayne (12-2): Warriors have won three straight since losing to Montverde (Fla.) Academy at Flyin' to the Hoop; after Fairmont today play Franklin-Simpson (Ky.) in the State Farm Shoot Out at Bowling Green, Ky., on Saturday.
- 2. Trotwood-Madison (10-3): Rams were stung by nonleague rival Dunbar 78-62 for their second loss in three games. Join Wayne at Bowling Green on Saturday vs. Louisville Eastern.
- 3. Vandalia Butler (9-4): Aviators have three losses by a combined 12 points; dropped Troy 61-58 for their third straight win.
- 4. Springfield (10-3): Wildcats have won five straight to knock listing Northmont out of the rankings.
- 5. Troy (9-4): Trojans fell to Butler and Wayne last week; add losses to Tipp and Trotwood and the Trojans have lost to teams with a combined record of 41-11.

Division II

- 1. Dunbar (13-0): Wolverines continue to dish out beatdowns, the latest to Trotwood; after Belmont today Dunbar is at Canton GlenOak on Saturday; this is the program that produced former OSU center Kosta Koufos.
- 2. Chaminade Julianne (12-1): Eagles have now won 11 straight following a Game 2 loss to Dunbar; GCL North rivals Alter and Carroll are next.
- 3. Marshall (9-3): Cougars thumped Jefferson 80-68 to regain their swagger; must not be sidetracked by a far-off Feb. 9 rematch with Dunbar.
- 4. Tippecanoe (10-2): Red Devils went 2-1 last week, blitzing Milton-Union and Greenon after falling to Tecumseh.
- 5. Fenwick (11-2): Falcons are 2-2 in their last four games to start a daunting second half of the regular season.

Division III

- 1. Middletown Madison (14-0): All the shooting stars have aligned for the Mohawks so far.
- 2. Coldwater (10-1): Cavaliers are back in their winning track after loss to Fort Recovery, having thumped Versailles and Greenville.
- 3. Anna (12-2): Rockets have won nine straight; big SCL rival game at Fort Loramie today.
- 4. Bethel (10-3): Bees are on a 4-1 run, having lost only to Tri-Village.
- 5. Greeneview (10-3): Rams suffered consecutive thumpings to Catholic Central and Southeastern, but recovered by whipping Belmont.

Division IV

- 1. Jefferson (10-3): Streaky Broncos recovered from losses to Pine Crest (Fla.) at Flyin' to the Hoop and Marshall to whip Harvest Prep and dismantle Ponitz, 80-36.
- 2. Southeastern (11-1): Trojans laid a 23-point loss on Cedarville and beat Greeneview by 13 to take and firmer grip on the OHC lead.
- 3. Fort Recovery (11-1): Indians have won five straight and share the MAC lead with Delphos St. John's.
- 4. Springfield Catholic Central (8-4): Irish are hanging tough in the OHC's chase pack.
- 5. Yellow Springs (9-1): Bulldogs have won two straight and look to be a lock for an MBC title.

Find this article at:

<http://www.daytondailynews.com/dayton-sports/high-school-sports/ddn-boys-basketball-poll-for-jan-29-518258.html>

 Print
this page
 Close